

Aid coming from the Russian Church to people in need in the Philippian City of Bacoor

The charity and social service department of the Russian Orthodox Church's diocese of the Philippines and Vietnam has begun giving aid to poor families in the City of Bacoor 10 km away from the capital city of Manila.

Staffers of the department are training local volunteers for children's nutrition and good hygiene. According to the diocesan website, since the Russian Orthodox Church is known in Bacoor and there are many of those who wish to join it, in the future it is possible to set up a community and open another parish of the Moscow Patriarchate in it.

DECR Communication Service